I have not heard this; on plane heading to SFO and going off line.

I trust Kathy can follow-up on this. She'll be on island this weekend

"out" for now.

We're hearing rumors that EPA would like to participate in decision making regarding sign removal, sample cessation, etc. Are the rumors correct?

If so, could EPA and DOH get together and explain how we should operate? For us, it doesn't matter...we just want to make sure everyone's on the same sheet of music. At this point, I'm assuming the rumors are correct...please advise. Thanks!
